It's 1944, and a black sergeant has been murdered on a Louisiana Army base, unleashing an investigation that reveals deep-rooted racial tensions. A determined investigator must race against his white leadership to unravel the crime before they unravel him. A masterfully unfolded exploration triggers a riveting onslaught of questions about sacrifice, service and identity in America.

A hair-raising drama that reverberates with the "authentic and exciting pulse" (The New York Times) of mystery, Charles Fuller's Pulitzer Prize-winning masterpiece soars onto Broadway for the first time. Tony Award® winner Kenny Leon (A Raisin in the Sun) directs a cast that includes three-time Tony nominee David Alan Grier, two-time Golden Globe nominee Blair Underwood and film, tv and Broadway actor Jerry O'Connell.
