A MUSICAL COMEDY

Tony Award® and Grammy Award® winner Katrina Lenk (The Band's Visit; Indecent), who plays Bobbie, and two-time Tony and Grammy winner, and Olivier Award® winner (for this role) Patti LuPone (Gypsy; Evita), who plays Joanne, star in Stephen Sondheim and George Furth's innovative musical comedy. The original production was the recipient of six 1971 Tonys, including Best Musical.

The story revolves around Bobbie, who is single and is celebrating her 35th birthday. Her friends keep asking why isn't she married; isn't it time to settle down and start a family. But Bobbie is unable to commit to a long-term relationship, let alone marriage. All her friends' nudging really could drive a person crazy!

Helmed by visionary two-time Tony winner Marianne Elliott (War Horse; The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Nighttime; Angels in America), COMPANY comes from a critically acclaimed run in London, where it won four Olivier Awards®, including Best Musical Revival. Elliott, who worked with composer Stephen Sondheim to envision characters as the opposite gender, brings a fresh interpretation to this production.
