

#DateMe

An OkCupid Experiment

TRUE LOVE IS ONLY A HASHTAG AWAY

As a scientific experiment about the online pursuit of love, 38 “undateable” profiles were placed on the world’s most popular online dating site to see if anyone would connect with them. The online communication that followed was traced, measured and documented. #DateMe: An OkCupid Experiment follows the results of this exploration into the dating world.

The 38 online characters are on stage with live interactive multimedia, original music and improvisation—making this new and shocking show unlike anything New York City has ever seen! It had a three-year run at Second City’s Up Comedy Club in Chicago, where this “perfect night out!” (Time Out Chicago) was hailed as “a laugh-out-loud comedy experience” by Chicago Splash Magazine.

THE PERFECT SHOW FOR ANYONE LOOKING FOR LOVE, ALREADY IN LOVE, OR WHO WANTS TO LAUGH...WITH LOVE!
