

HARRY CONNICK, JR.

A CELEBRATION OF
COLE PORTER

Three-time Grammy winner, two-time Emmy winner and Tony Award® nominated Harry Connick, Jr. (The Pajama Game; Thou Shalt Not; On A Clear Day You Can See Forever) returns to Broadway in a production celebrating the work of legendary composer and songwriter Cole Porter.

A member of the Songwriters Hall of Fame, Porter wrote the music & lyrics to Kiss Me, Kate, which won the first Tony Award® for Best Musical and for which he won the Tony for Best Original Score. Many of his songs have become standards, and who better than the multi-talented Connick to commemorate them in HARRY CONNICK, JR.—A CELEBRATION OF COLE PORTER.

Conceived by, directed by and starring Connick, this all-new production features a modern, multi-media presentation of some of Porter's most beloved songs in a creative, unique manner. Connick is sure to please audiences with his signature style, while honoring the life's work of Porter's considerable contribution to the Great American Songbook, which includes classics such as "Anything Goes," "You Do Something To Me," "True Love," "Too Darn Hot," "I Get A Kick Out of You" and "From This Moment On."

Connick expresses he is "beyond excited to be returning to the stage to share my interpretation of the work of a true American genius."

NEDERLANDER THEATRE
208 WEST 41st STREET (bet. 7th-8th Aves.)
NEW YORK, NY 10036

Previews begin December 7, 2019
Opening Night December 12, 2019
Running Time approx. 1 hour, 40 minutes
Limited Engagement through December 29, 2020

GreatWhiteWay.com
(212) 757-9117 | (888) 517-0112