

Mrs. Doubtfire

She's a New Musical, Dearie

Helloooooooo, poppets! Mrs. Doubtfire is a musical now, dearie!

Based on the much-loved movie, this is the story of Daniel Hillard, an out-of-work actor who loses custody of his three children in a divorce. Desperately trying to stay in their lives, he devises a convoluted plan to spend more time with them—he disguises himself as Scottish nanny Euphemia Doubtfire and gets hired by his unsuspecting ex-wife. But how long will he be able to keep his secret going? As he loses himself in his new identity and grows closer to his kids, Mrs. Doubtfire teaches Daniel more than he bargained for about how to be a father.

Tony Award® nominated Rob McClure (Chaplin, Something Rotten!, Honeymoon in Vegas) stars in this heartfelt and hilarious musical about the lengths we go to for our loved ones. He is joined by Jenn Gambatese (Tarzan, All Shook Up) as his wife and Tony nominated Brad Oscar (Something Rotten!, The Producers) as the brother who helps him evolve into Euphemia.

MRS. DOUBTFIRE features a book by Karey Kirkpatrick and John O'Farrell and music and lyrics by Wayne Kirkpatrick and Karey Kirkpatrick, the Tony Award® nominated team behind Something Rotten! Four-time Tony winner Jerry Zaks (Guys and Dolls, Hello, Dolly!) directs and Lorin Latarro (Waitress) choreographs.
