

LIMITED BROADWAY ENGAGEMENT

RODGERS & HAMMERSTEIN'S

OKLAHOMA!

Rodgers and Hammerstein captured the heart of America over 75 years ago with their groundbreaking musical. Now, direct from a sold-out, critically acclaimed run at St. Ann's Warehouse, this masterpiece comes to Broadway reorchestrated and reimagined for the 21st century. Stripped down to uncover the darker psychological truths at its center, Daniel Fish's production examines the violence of the frontier that shaped our country.

The story revolves around a farm girl, Laurey, and the competition between two men—the self-assured handsome cowboy Curly and the menacing outcast ranch hand Jud Fry—who want to take her to a dance.

The New York Times proclaims this OKLAHOMA! to be “THRILLING AND AUDACIOUS.

THIS HAS ALWAYS BEEN A VERY AMERICAN STORY,
BUT HAS NEVER FELT SO MUCH OF ONE UNTIL NOW.”
