

THE GREAT SOCIETY

LIMITED ENGAGEMENT THROUGH NOVEMBER 30, 2019

From the team behind All the Way, the Tony Award®-winning Best Play, comes an exciting new play about Lyndon B. Johnson's legacy. All the Way illustrated LBJ's year-long presidency after President Kennedy's assassination. This follow-up drama continues after his win in the 1964 election.

THE GREAT SOCIETY explores his “epic triumph in a landslide election to the agonizing decision not to run for re-election just three years later. It was an era that would define history forever: the rise of the Civil Rights Movement, the deaths of Martin Luther King Jr. and Robert Kennedy, the escalation of the Vietnam War and the creation of some of the greatest social programs America has ever known—and one man was at the center of it all: LBJ.”

Emmy and Olivier Award winner Brian Cox stars as LBJ, and will be joined by a cast portraying over 50 characters, including Tony Award® nominee Bryce Pinkham as Robert F. Kennedy, Tony nominee Marc Kudisch as Richard J. Daley and Tony nominee Richard Thomas as Hubert Humphrey.

“It shines a bright, clear light on a pivotal moment in American history.”

--The New York Times

VIVIAN BEAUMONT THEATER (at Lincoln Center)
150 WEST 65th STREET
NEW YORK, NY 10023

Groups 10+

Previews begin September 6, 2019

Opening Night October 1, 2019

Recommended for ages 12+

Limited Engagement through November 30, 2019

GreatWhiteWay.com

(212) 757-9117 | (888) 517-0112