

1 LEGENDARY STAR 76 TROMBONES

Tony Award®, Emmy, Grammy and Golden Globe winner and Oscar and Laurence Olivier Award nominee HUGH JACKMAN returns to the Great White Way in THE MUSIC MAN.

Jackman earned a Tony Award® for 2003's The Boy From Oz and, in addition to other theatrical endeavors, he is well-known for an extensive film career which includes Wolverine in the X-Men series and Jean Valjean in Les Misérables.

Now he portrays Professor Harold Hill, the fast-talking traveling salesman who cons the residents of River City, Iowa, into buying instruments and uniforms for a band he promises to organize. But his plans to leave town with the money are thwarted when he falls for the town librarian, Marian, played by two-time Tony Award winner Sutton Foster (Thoroughly Modern Millie; Anything Goes).

Jerry Zaks directs and Warren Carlyle choreographs, reuniting after collaborating on the 2017 revival of Hello, Dolly!

Meredith Willson's quintessential musical has been a family favorite since it opened on Broadway over 60 years ago, having garnered 6 Tonys, including Best Musical.

Theatre: to be announced

Groups 10+
Previews begin September 9, 2020
Opening Night October 15, 2020

GreatWhiteWay.com
(212) 757-9117 | (888) 517-0112