

MICHAEL URIE

MERCEDES RUEHL

HARVEY FIERSTEIN'S

TORCH SONG

DIRECTED BY MOISÉS KAUFMAN

TORCH SONG is back! The original Broadway production opened in 1982, earning Harvey Fierstein Tony Awards® for Best Play and Best Actor in a Play. Now, after a successful run off-Broadway, where the original three-act Torch Song Trilogy has been condensed into two acts, Fierstein's hilarious and heart-wrenching play comes to the Great White Way.

Starring Michael Urie ("Ugly Betty," Buyer & Cellar) and Academy Award and Tony winner Mercedes Ruehl (The Fisher King, Lost in Yonkers), Harvey Fierstein's TORCH SONG revolves around Arnold Beckoff, a gay Jewish drag performer and singer, who searches for happiness in New York. All he wants is a husband, a child and a pair of bunny slippers that fit, but a visit from his overbearing mother reminds him that he needs one thing more: respect.

Moisés Kaufman (The Laramie Project, I am My Own Wife) directs this poignant production about the families we're born into, the families we choose, and the battles to bring them all home.

"Irresistible, stirring and vibrant.

Urie and Ruehl are two ideally matched performers at the top of their games.

Burning with emotion behind the laughs, TORCH SONG still sears."
