

What the Constitution Means to Me

“ELECTRIFYINGLY TOPICAL AND EYE-OPENING”

--The New York Times

Direct from its groundbreaking Off-Broadway run, this new play is the story of Obie Award winner Heidi Schreck’s teenage years as she earned enough money for college by winning Constitutional debate competitions across the country. She resurrects her teenage self in order to trace the intense relationship between four generations of women in her family and the founding document that dictated their rights and citizenship. This positive, very funny, achingly human exploration breathes new life into our Constitution and imagines how it will influence the next generation of American women.

WHAT THE CONSTITUTION MEANS TO ME has been named the Number One Play of the Year by The New Yorker and New York Magazine. Obie Award winner Oliver Butler directs this innovative production.

“BRACING AND STRIKINGLY RELEVANT”
