

Steppenwolf's production of

The Minutes

a play by Tracy Letts

directed by Anna D. Shapiro

Following their Tony Award®-winning Best Play August: Osage County, Tony winner and Pulitzer Prize winning playwright Tracy Letts and Tony winner director Anna D. Shapiro unite again to bring you this sensational new play. The record-breaking smash from Chicago's Steppenwolf Theatre examines the inner-workings of a city council meeting in a small town—and the hypocrisy, greed, ambition and unscrupulous practices that arise.

“An astonishing new play. If you have observed the workings of a city council (or, for that matter, your condo board), it is a good bet you will recognize the play’s lunatic version of democracy at work...” declares the Chicago Sun Times.

The cast includes Tracy Letts, Tony Award® winner Jessie Mueller (Beautiful), Tony winner Blair Brown (Copenhagen), Armie Hammer (Straight White Men), Sally Murphy (August: Osage County) and Austin Pendleton (Choir Boy).

Don't miss THE MINUTES - a powerful, electrically charged and sharply funny portrayal of democracy in action that proves everything you know can change—in just a matter of minutes. After all, the smallest towns keep the biggest secrets.

“Nothing in this explosive 90-minute drama is as it seems.”
